

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law has improved my time at home by eliminating unwanted calls. I used to get an average of six calls a week and now I receive no more than one per week. I appreciate the privacy that Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law has afforded me.